NUMBER 35

AN ACT

To Regulate The carrying, Moving, Delivering, Transferring Or Distributing Of Intoxicating Liquors In Local Option Districts.

The following bill was passed in the House at Frankfort on Wednesday and reported to the Senate on Thursday. It, as all other bills originating in the House was at this late date of the session given to the Committee on Rules. As the majority of this committee is regarded as antagonistic to temperance, it will not be apt to come to a vote, unless by a 3 vote.

We insert it to show the temperance sentiment in the House. The outlook for the future is bright.

"It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, individual or corporation, public or private carrier to bring into, transfer to other person or persons, corporation, carrier or agent; deliver or distribute, in any county, district, precinct, town or city, where the sale of intoxicating liquors has been prohibited, or may be prohibited, whether by special act of the General Assembly, or by vote of the people under the Local Option Law, any spirituous, vinous, malt or other intoxicating liquor, regardless of the name by which it may be called; and this act shall apply to all packages of such intoxicating liquors whether broken or unbroken.

Provided, individuals may bring into such district, upon their person or as their personal baggage, and for their private use, such liquors in quantity not to exceed one gallon; and provided, the provisions of this act shall not apply to licensed physicians or druggists, to whom any public carrier may deliver such goods, in unbroken packages, in quantity not to exceed five gallons at any one time.

Each package of such spirituous, vinous, malt or other intoxicating liquor, regardless of the name by which it may be called, whether broken or unbroken packages, brought into and transferred to other person, corporation, carrier or agent, delivered or distributed in such Local Option Territory shall constitute a separate offense.

Any person or persons, individual or corporation, public or private carrier violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of violating the Local Option Law, and shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense.

This amendment was incorporated: penalty does not apply to carriers who make no charge for carrying.

And the place of delivery of such liquors shall be held to be the place of sale.

And all laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

"I owe my whole life to Burdock Blood Bitters. Scrofulous sores covered my body. I seemed beyond cure. B. B. B. has made me a perfectly well woman." Mrs. Chas. Hutton, Berville, Mich. 34-4t.

We clip the following from G. R. Kellar's editorial notes. He is not regarded as an enthusiast for temperance:

"There is no doubt about the growth of public opinion as to the question of licensing the sale of liquors, and in a few years liquor must go, and with it the sale and use of tobacco. Already some of the leading church organizations of the North are taking a stand against the use of tobacco by church members—and especially against its use by preachers.

"SHOOT."

"Or Give Up The Gun To One Who Will."

"Don't make a pretense. If you intend to hunt tigers, go into the jungle, or else get off your elephant and throw aside your gun. Don't bring a man before you who knows nothing about what you want to know.

These were the words with which Circuit Judge Parker of Lexington brought the attention of the grand jury to the pool rooms and the violations by the barrooms of the Sunday closing law.

With regard to the sale of liquor on Sunday, Judge Parker said it was not a matter of opinion as to the wisdom of the law. The statutes provide for the closing of saloons on Sundays, and this law, he said, should either be enforced or repealed.

We are acting like children. It is not intelligent to make laws and then violate them. It is folly and child's play. The laws are on the books, the courts won't enforce them and the Legislature won't repeal them. We seem to have lost all sense of propriety."

On the question of poolrooms Judge Parker said he intended to submit this question to a petit jury, and that he was determined to have the people of Fayette county decide this matter, as he was unwilling to assume this responsibility.

"If pool selling be right," said the court, "it is better that the Legislature legalize it; if it is not right, it ought to be suppressed and the law enforced. All that I have done has not availed, and it is my purpose to allow the petit jury to say what the punishment shall be.

"Gentlemen, if you want to permit the poolrooms to operate, make the fine one cent; if you want to suppress them, punish the operators with a jail sentence. This will stop it. I am not one of those who believe that a man who bets and wins money is dishonest, but I do believe that there is nothing which will more certainly destroy the moral nature of your boy. It seems to me, gentlemen, that this consideration should be enough to cause you to enforce the law, if your oaths should not lead you to enforce it."

"Is your husband an even tempered man?"

"Yes," answered Mrs. Cornot-sel, "He's jes' about as cross one day as another."—Washington Star.

The Chicago City Council, by a vote 40 to 23, raised the saloon license from $500 a year to $1,000. The city now has 7017 saloons. Alas, alas.

An offer of $125,000 from John D. Rockefeller for a hospital for children suffering from tuberculosis was announced by R. Fulton Cutting.

"A dose in time saves lives." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup; nature's remedy for coughs, colds, pulmonary disease of every sort. 34 4t.

Local Option Election.

The local option election recently called at Millersburg, and call for which was found to be defective owing to the fact that no provision was made for a special registration, was reconsidered in Judge Dundon's Court and an order entered calling the election for Wednesday, May 9, and providing for a special registration on Tuesday, May 1.

The Wife—Doctor, can you do anything for my husband?

The Doctor—What is the matter?

The Wife—Worrying about money.

The Doctor—Oh I can relieve him of that, all right.—Cassels.

Ascum—I see there is some talk of having the people vote at the next State election upon the question of abolishing capital punishment?

Fogle—No, sir! Capital punishment was good enough for my ancestors, and it's good enough for me.
